THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: John 15: 17-20

And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

Sinner, why do you remain starving and miserable in a far country? If you will but arise and go to The Father with a broken and contrite heart - he will embrace you. Hasten to him and be free. Christian, have you departed the house of your Father and abused your heavenly inheritance? Remain estranged no longer! Your Father awaits your return. He has not disowned you and He will treat you kindly. Prodigal sons and daughters, return!

The greatest freedom is freedom from sin.

Waiting in God's presence allows Him to do His best work within you, transforming you by the renewing of your mind..

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Romans 12:2

We are very thankful for the safe return of our Pastor and his family who have been on vacation this past week.

GIVE SOMETHING

Give something that belongs to you, a friendly word, a smile –

It's like a sunbeam in the blue out on a golden isle.

Give something to a suffering soul that errs the same as you

And cannot find in life its goal, your gift will help you too.

Give something from your heart away to save a fellow man,

A feeling of warm sympathy will do it now and then.

The happiness you will bestow today – perhaps tomorrow

In torrents back again will flow to help you in your sorrow.

For those of you who were not in attendance last Sunday, we are so happy to see you back

This coming Saturday is National Beef Burger Day. Pull out the grill, fire it up and enjoy a good home cooked hamburger.
