THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: I Corinthians 1:27-29

But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence.

The Truth of God is not to be found in the wisdom of the world. Those who are counted wise in this world are rarely acquainted with The Truth. Strong and mighty men of the world cannot be used of God. But the man who confesses that he is not wise and cannot find truth in this world will find The Truth by faith. And the man who confesses that he is weak and unworthy will be upheld by the mighty hand of God. Let us never measure ourselves by the standards of the world but let us seek Truth and Strength in the humility of the Cross.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who stole idols from her father?

Answer: Rachel (Genesis 31:19)

This Week's Question: What robber was released from prison at the time of the Passover?

Harvest Time

Sometimes while laboring for our Lord
We feel it's all in vain.

We wonder why we struggle through the heartaches and the pain.

We try our best to lead the lost to Calvary's lonely hill,
So they can come to know Him and experience the thrill
Of knowing they are born again, safe from a devil's hell.
And know for sure their soul's secure and everything is well.

But then so many turn away this blessing from above
Rejecting for eternity the Savior's dying love.

But surely harvest time will come and gladness we shall see
As others seek to find Him at the foot of Calvary.
Praise God the call is going out for all the world to hear
So pray that they will find Him while He is standing near.

Our weaknesses, when consecrated to the Lord, are like a magnet drawing His power into our infirmities.

Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

Isaiah 12:2-3
