THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: Romans 8:12-13

Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

The Saints of God are debtors to Jesus Christ. He purchased us by His blood and we owe Him everything - mind, body and soul. Therefore, it is not the flesh that we should live to please, but rather we should live to please the Spirit of Christ that is within us. We must actively deny the flesh, knowing that pleasing the desires thereof leads to death; and we must feed the Spirit within us that brings life more abundant. This is no light command! Yet God is faithful to give us strength through Christ if we reach out to Him.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who was stoned for stealing booty during the battle of Ai? Answer: Achan (Joshua 7:10-26)

This Week's Question: Which epistles say that the day of the Lord will come like a thief?

Trusting in the Lord and being saved by His marvelous grace is an assurance of where we will ultimately spend eternity.

And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

NO MATTER

No matter what the trial that I may face today
No matter tribulation that comes along my way
My precious Lord and Savior is holding to my hand
And He will gently lead me according to His plan.
I may not know the reason, I may not understand
But with His tender guiding I know that I shall stand
So I will never waiver I'll firmly travel on Until I reach sweet Heaven and my eternal home
