THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: Job 1:20-21

Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

When Job lost all of his wealth and all of his children the same day, his first reaction was to worship God. He mourned his loss, humbled himself, and cried out to God. The loss was real. The pain was real. The broken heart was real. But still he worshiped God. Job declared that we are born with nothing and we will die with nothing. It is God's sovereign pleasure to give and to take away. Ours is not to reason why but to declare "blessed be the name of the LORD". Let us praise and worship God at all times and in all seasons.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: In the time of the judges, what man stole eleven hundred pieces of silver from his own mother?
Micah (Judges 17:1-4)

This Week's Question: What did Joseph accuse his brothers of stealing.?

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please remember Bobby Jenkins, Jr, Stella Jenkins, Georgia Farmer and especially the lost in your prayers.

Our revival begins in two weeks and we should be praying for the services and the preachers. Please keep this in your prayers and plan on being here each and every night.

Just a reminder that the Activities Committee is suggesting that we once again have our annual revival dinner on Saturday evening at 5:00. They are requesting that the church provide the meat and the ladies of the church to provide the side dishes. Bro Chandler will be mentioning it this morning.

HE LEADS THE WAY

Outside my bedroom window the little birdies soar
The golden sunshine glistens on the path to my front door

The gentle breezes beckon me to sit beneath the tree

I hear the distant lapping of the waves upon the sea.

Yes everything is perfect in my life now at this time

As I listen to the ringing of the church bells as they chime.

But when the waves are crashing and there's trouble
on the way

I know my Savior guides me and I know He leads the way.

No matter what may happen I know within my soul,
My JESUS loves and cares for me and He is in control.
