Pastors Comments

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: Luke 22:31-32

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not:

Satan, the prince of this world, walketh about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. No doubt, he desires to sift each of God's children. We shall be tempted and tried and buffeted upon every side. But Jesus has prayed for us! Shall not His prayers be answered? Shall not the Prince of peace deliver what he hath promised? Our faith may waiver at times. It may seem small and faint. And it will surely be unequal to the temptations that lay before us. But it will not fail! Jesus Himself shall hold us in the midst of the maelstrom. Let us fear not when we are sifted, for the Lord has promised our faith will stand.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE UPDATE

If you haven't started to prepare for the CELEBRITY BINGO BALL, start visiting your local Goodwill in search of your "ball" outfit. Come dressed as your favorite celebrity from Minnie Mouse to Vince Gill, let's go all out and have a great time together.

His Power

The storm clouds may be gathering, and the darkness
dim your view
And you may not really understand where God is leading you.
Just keep your eyes on Jesus for He has the perfect plan,
And it won't be long until you clearly see and understand.
His time is not our time you see, His thoughts and ways
not ours,
But you can calmly rest assured He has you in His power.
So clasp His hand and hold on tight, He's always there for
you
And just when things are looking bad, He'll see you safely through.
