Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments:

This Week's Scripture: Proverbs 15:32-33

He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding. The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

Humiliation of soul always brings a positive blessing with it. If we empty our hearts of self God will fill them with his love. God will deny no blessing to a thoroughly humbled spirit. If we do not receive a particular blessing, it is because we lack sufficient humility to bear it. That blessing would lift us up in pride and cause our downfall. When a man is sincerely humble, and never ventures to touch so much as a grain of the praise, there is scarcely any limit to what God will do for him. Let us seek true humility that God may lift us up.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What king sent an exiled priest back to Samaria to teach the Gentiles there how to follow God?
Answer: The king of Assyria (2 Kings 17:28)

This Week's Question: What apostle taught and disputed in the lecture hall of a man named Tyrannus?

BUSINESS MEETING TODAY

The Beauty of Autumn

I revel when autumn's palette appears upon the scene,
With hues of golden splendor that are strewn with red and green!

The sunrise casts its shadows, so picturesque and still,
Across the hills and valleys to share fall's morning chill!.

While the quiet peaceful countryside lay slumbering
through it all,

O'er night the Master Painter changed summer into fall!

No season is more tranquil, more soothing to our souls!
Than the long-awaited autumn with the beauty it unfolds.

And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable;
1 Chronicles 4:40
