Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Romans 1:7

To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The apostles and the Christians of the early Church were called to be saints. We usually have no problem thinking of them as saints. In fact, we often times think of them as servants closer to God and less prone to sin and failure than us. But they were men of like passions such as we are. Were we to talk with them, we would find that they suffered the same weaknesses, failures, and inner turmoil as we often do. Yet they were saints. And so we are called to be saints. Once we are saved, we are no longer Sinners (though we do sin) but we are Saints. As the Christians of Rome were, so are we called to be saints, Let us strive through the strength of Christ in us to rise to the occasion.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Bulletin's Question: Who slept at David's door while he was home on furlough? Answer: Uriah (2 Samuel 11:9)

This Week's Question: Who could not sleep on the night after Haman built a gallows for hanging Mordecai?
