Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Isaiah 65:17-19

For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice forever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

No doubt there is weeping and sadness in this life. Perhaps there is more weeping among God's people than any other - for we know all too well our failures and imperfections. But a day comes when God shall wipe away every tear. Rejoice! for the glorified weep for nothing. They dwell within a city which shall never be stormed; they bask in a sun which shall never set; they drink of a river which shall never dry; they pluck fruit from a tree which shall never wither. But greatest of all, they are without fault before His throne, and are fully conformed to His image. Let us be comforted by these words.

Happy Birthday to Abygail Rohrig. She is celebrating a birthday today.

My Shepherd

I feel the hand of God on me like a friend to whom I'm known,
Leading me down better roads than I would take alone.
His guidance helps me through the days when I need
His help to cope
And at night, He gives me peace and rest and soothes my heart with hope.

I feel the love of Christ in me, the love He said I'd know
If I'd just put my trust in Him and let my hatreds go.
And so I'll hate no man again the way I've done before,
Instead, I do the best I can to "Go, and sin no more."

The hand of God, the love of Christ are in my daily life
And now I live in love and peace where once I dwelt in stife.

My life is richer now by far than anything before,
For my Sheperd leads me in His steps on the path to Heaven's door,

Sis Stella spent some time with Joyce Callis of Fath Church this past week. She and Joyce were cataloging her husband's religious book collection. There were a lot of books and it was an enjoyable time spent between sisters.
