Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Luke 15:1-2

Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

Observe the condescension of this fact. This Man, who towers above all other men, holy harmless, undefiled, and separate from sinners—this Man receiveth sinners. This Man, who is no other than the eternal God, before whom angels veil their faces—this Man receiveth sinners. Yet He receives them not that they would remain sinners. But rather that He might forgive, cleanse, save, justify, sanctify, perfect, and glorify them! There was never such a reception as this! Are you not glad that even today, Jesus still receives sinners?

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Bulletin's Question: Who spoke to Abram while he was in a deep sleep? Answer: God (Genesis 15:12-16)

Take The Hand

Take the hand of the Master, the sweet Prince of Peace
Take the hand of the Master and troubles will cease.
Take the hand of the Master and follow His lead,
Take the hand of the Master, He is all that you need.
Take the hand of the Master, the Beginning and End
Take the hand of the Master, He's your dearest friend
Take the hand of the Master, and bask in His love
Take the hand of the Master, the sweet morning dove.
Take the hand of the Master, the great King of Kings
Take the hand of the Master, who owns everything.
Take the hand of the Master and hold on so tight
Take the hand of the Master and you'll be alright.
