Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: I Corinthians 15:20

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

As we remember the resurrection of our Lord today, let us celebrate as well. The scripture tells us that by His resurrection, Christ defeated death, hell, and the grave! It was a victory. But it is also a fulfillment of scripture. On the first day of the week after the Passover, the Israelites offered the firstfruit of the harvest to the Lord in anticipation of a great harvest later in the year. Jesus' resurrection on that same day is a promise of a greater resurrection to come. He is the firstfruits, brethren, but the harvest to come is our own resurrection. Praise God!

Behold the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear.
Isaiah 59:1

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Bulletin's Question: Who fell asleep during Paul's sermon and was later raised from the dead by Paul? Answer: Eutychus (Acts 20:9-12)

This Week's Question: Who was sleeping between two soldiers when an angel came to release him?

When life become so stressful that you really don't know what to do, just get on your knees and talk to the friend who knows all about it.

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Proverbs 3:5-6

Please start praying for our revival.

Happy Birthday to Jean Dyer on Saturday, the 15th.

No Business Meeting as the church decided last Sunday to move the Business Meeting back due to this being Easter Sunday.

We would love to see everyone come out on Wednesday night for our mid-week Bible Study.

And victory has been won
Oh what a day to shout the praise
Of God's begotten son.*
