Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Matthew 10:24-25

The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

Jesus makes clear to his disciples that a life spent serving Him is not easy by earthly standards. It is often filled with trials, pain, disappointment, and persecution. But Jesus does not ask us to walk a path which He has not already trod. The scriptures prophesied centuries before His birth that He would be a "man of sorrows, well acquainted with grief". He tells us that it is enough for the servant to be as his lord. The question we must answer to ourselves every day is, "is it enough?"

And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

1 Samuel 18:1
