Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Heb 13:5

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Is this not the most comforting and reassuring promise from the Lord? Come what may, he will never leave nor forsake us. He told Abraham, "I am thy shield and thy exceeding great reward" (Gen 15:1). What else could we ask for? The world teaches us to be discontent with what we have, to strive for more and to envy others. God teaches us that He is sufficient for all our needs. As we grow more content simply abiding in the Savior's love, we will find true christian happiness.

He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Rev 3:5

BUSINESS MEETING TODAY

Congratulations to our very own Sis Rachel Harrison who graduated from high school this past Friday. We are so proud of Rachel and her accomplishments. Please keep her in your prayers as she embarks on another journey in the fall when she begins studying at Western Kentucky University.
