Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Phil 1:27

Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

The word "conversation" does not merely mean our talk and converse with one another, but signifies the actions and the privileges of citizenship: and thus we are commanded to let our actions, as citizens of the New Jerusalem, be such as becometh the gospel of Christ. Let us seek to win others by the gentleness of our words and acts. The gospel is very loving. It is the message of the God of love to a lost and fallen race. Christ's last command to his disciples was, "Love one another." O for more real, hearty union and love to all the saints. For His sake, for our own sakes, and for the sakes of others, we must strive day by day to let our conversation be more in accordance with his gospel.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Bulletin's Question: Which epistle tells sleepers to rise from the dead? Answer: Ephesians (5:14)

Please remember to pray for Bro Rhea Dyer. He is the brother of Colin and is very ill.

THE DAY IS DONE

*When evening shadows lengthen
Across my grassy lawn
It's just a strong reminder
That the day is almost gone.
And then I stop to wonder,
"What have I done today?"
To point someone to Jesus
As they struggled on their way.
Oh Lord my prayer shall ever be
That when my life is done
Someone can say I told them of
Your precious Holy Son.*
