Welcome to Mt Calvaru

Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Matthew 14:29-30

And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

When we have our eyes and heart firmly fixed upon Jesus, there is nothing in this world that can overcome us. But so often, just when the Lord is blessing us the most, the storms of life grab our attention and we begin to sink. Yet Jesus is still mighty to save! Let us keep our eyes fixed upon the Lord.

Prayer Requests

Please remember the husband of Nita Reid in your prayers

If you haven't started praying for the revival, now is the time. It is quickly approaching

Please continue to remember Bro Rhea Dyer in your prayers. He is the brother of Colin and is not doing well.

BUSINESS MEETING TODAY

The Chandlers have purchased a new home in Bell Buckle and will be relocating very soon. Please pray for a safe and quick moving.

Sis Wanda had an episode this past week wherein she placed mail in her box to be picked up by the postman. There were checks in the envelopes and someone took the items from the box, changed the amounts, cashed one, and the bank called her when the man attempted to cash another check. Just a reminder to not place your mail in the box for the postman to pick up. Be on the alert.

Nothing Like

There's nothing like a candle in the darkness of the night
To brighten up our spirits and guide
us to the light
There's nothing like a little child who comes to give a hug
That makes you warm and cozy as a bug wrapped in a rug.
There's nothing like the love of GOD
to each and everyone;
It makes you feel like you've been touched
by a gentle ray of sun.
So thank Him for His love for you and give to Him your all,
Then when your time has come to go,
you'll answer to His call.

Don't keep one eye on the temptation while praying not to be led into it
