Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Hosea 10:12

Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

The prophet Hosea was speaking during a time when Israel was reaping the heavy hand of God's judgement because they had sowed wickedness and iniquity. How can we expect to reap the sweet mercies of God if we do not sow the righteousness of Christ? As we start into this week of effort meetings, let us truly seek the Lord that he might break up the fallow ground of our hearts and rain righteousness and mercy and salvation upon us.

BUSINESS MEETING NEXT SUNDAY

REVIVAL UPDATE

We have certainly enjoyed our revival this year. We have been blessed with wonderful sermons and a sweet spirit every night. Although we haven't seen anyone saved so far, we have certainly been fortunate to be in the services each evening. Please continue to pray for this effort meeting and that the lost will be saved.

We are also thankful for the visitors that came to support us and especially for the Dyer's grandson. It was a joy to see him.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Bulletin's Question: What king of Israel had a reputation as a fast and furious chariot driver? Answer: Jehu (2 Kings 9:20)

This Bulletin's Question: What king did Esther marry?

Yesterday was Karen Simmons and her husband's anniversary. Please wish her a happy anniversary today.
