Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: John 6:37

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

God has offered salvation through Jesus Christ to all men. Yet none can come unto Jesus unless they are drawn by the Father. Many are called by God but few are chosen, in Christ, because few come unto Him. Yet Jesus assures us, that those who do come to Him shall be safe for eternity. He will not reject any who call upon His name. Furthermore, none shall be cast out after they are received. Our salvation is secure in the hands of Jesus. Take heart all those who have come to Him - and those who would come to Him - for you will in no wise be cast out.

BUSINESS MEETING TODAY

REVIVAL UPDATE

Although we saw no one saved during our revival, we can certainly say we had a good one. We want to thank Sis Carly Chandler for preparing dinner for everyone during the week and we want to thank the ladies of the church for the scrumptious pot luck dinner on Saturday night.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Bulletin's Question: What kind did Esther marry?

Answer: Ahasuerus, also known as Xerxes (Esther 1:1)

This Bulletin's Question: What Syrian king besieged Samaria, causing great famine that led to cannibalism?

Prayer Requests:

Continue to remember Jonathan Fuqua, (son-in-law of Wanda Haddock Brown) as he recuperates from a vehicular accident.

Continue to pray for Brian Reid, the husband of Sis Nita. They both need our prayers for healing and strength.

Continue to remember Bro Rhea Dyer In your prayers

Melodies of Summer

Summer sings sweet melodies

To roses red and leafy trees.

She sprinkles golden sun-drenched beams

On my rainbow-colored dreams.

A robin serenades the day

And hops around the yard in play.

Summer songs my heart embraces,

Pleasant sound from forest places.

And on a wafting August breeze,

Summer sings sweet melodies.

Please pray for Old Paths and Faith Church as they continue their search for a Pastor.

Old Paths Missionary Baptist Church will be having a revival beginning Friday, August 25 and run through Sunday, August 27th. Please try to attend if possible and remember this effort meeting in your prayers.
