Pastor's Comments:

Scripture for the Week: Genesis 9:14-15

When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh. And the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

When God makes a promise, he always remembers. His bow has been in the sky for 5000 years and he still remembers His promise. Men may look to the bow in the sky without a thought for God; they may even forget the promise all together. But God remembers. God also promised the Israelites, when the death angel came for all the firstborn in Egypt, "When I see the blood I shall pass over you." Likewise, God has promised that when the Judgment Day comes He will pass over all who have been washed in the blood of the Lamb. I rejoice that God remembers!

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

This Wednesday night we will probably finish up our study on the Book of Acts. Bro Chandler has done a wonderful job in bringing this book to life. His teaching is so in depth that it is almost like watching a movie in your mind. If you are not attending the Wednesday night service, now is the time to start.

When we finish Acts, we will begin a question period. Submit your Biblical questions to Bro Chandler and we will study and discuss the topic each Wednesday. Sis Stella has already submitted a question concerning the "new heaven and the new earth." Make plans to join us each week.

To Sherry Schuller
who celebrated a birthday yesterday.

Falling Leaves

Down come the leaves, bright yellow and red,
Settling soon in a snug winter bed,
Floating upon the wings of the breeze,
Twisting and turning with delicate ease.
I sit by my window, entranced by the sight,
And follow the course of beauty in flight,
To unite in array on grass that's still green,
No artist could paint a more beautiful scene.

But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

Deuteronomy 11:7
