Pastor's Comments:

SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK: Acts 14:21-22

And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

God has chosen His children in the fire of affliction and it is fitting that we should walk a path of tribulations in this life. Saints must never expect to escape troubles; if they do, they will be disappointed, for none of their predecessors have been without them. It is ordained of old that the cross of trouble should be engraved on every vessel of mercy, as the royal mark whereby the King's vessels of honour are distinguished. But though we walk a path sometimes strewn with trouble and sorrow, let us take comfort that the Master walked before us, He has been touched by greater affliction, and He is ever present to give us strength.

BUSINESS MEETING TODAY

Awake

God woke me up this morning with a kiss upon my face

He put His arms around me in a tender, warm embrace.

He whispered "child I love you, now have a blessed day."

He took my hand in His hand and said, "I'll lead the way."

We'll walk and talk together and enjoy the company,
And if you stumble in your steps, I'll hold you near to me.

Oh what a joy to know His love, to know He cares for me

And that He'll always lead me on throughout eternity.
