PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Scripture of the Week: Genesis 1:4

And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

In the beginning, God made a separation between things that are opposed to one another. Light and dark are opposites. Where one exists, the other cannot - and so God decreed a separation. John tells us that Jesus is the light of God and that the darkness of sin, rebellion and self-will cannot withstand him. Once that light is shed abroad in our hearts through the new birth, we are bidden to separate from the darkness of the world. "What communion hath light with darkness . . . be ye separate". Jesus was holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners; and, as he was, so we are to be nonconformists to the world, dissenting from all sin, and distinguished from the rest of mankind by our likeness to our Master.

Night

We want to encourage you to get your “hillbilly” outfit together for our upcoming Fall Fest.

Also, some of the ladies are already bringing in various items for the event and we request that you please do not move any of the items in the kitchen. Thank you for your cooperation.

+++++

Fall officially arrived today, even though the heat may not feel like it. Let's enjoy the coming season together and pledge our best to the Lord and His church.
