Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: 1 Peter 5:10

But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

Have you been called unto God's eternal glory b Jesus Christ? This is salvation! God has poured His grace out upon the saved that we might live in eternity surrounded by His glory. But that is yet to come. In this life there is still suffering. This is purification. God is testing an d trying us that we may be formed into the image of His beloved Son – our Savior – Jesus Christ. Rest assured, we shall only suffer in this world, yet a little while, then God will establish His children in perfection for all of eternity.

When Day Is Done

This day so full of promise has slowly slipped away,
Like dying coals upon the fire where logs of oak once lay.
Some victories, some losses, with work yet to be done
People who will need me, struggles to be won.
So I kneel beside my bed to thank God for this day,
I ask for nothing but His grace that love might light my way.
Gone forever is this day, content I've done my best.
I hand it over now to God and seek His peaceful rest.
