Welcome to Mt. Calvary

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

It's the end of October! Another month has come and gone. We are nearing the end of this year, 2015. It's hard to believe that in a few short weeks we will start seeing the twinkling lights, decorations, holiday shopping deals, and the mad rush to the department stores. We look around and we wonder sometimes where the time has gone. However, as we approach this beautiful time of year let us remember this is a wonderful time to enjoy the company of our family. I would also like to encourage/challenge every one of you to call or visit someone you haven't spoken to in a while. It never hurts to catch up with old friends. Maybe you could even invite them to church! Sometimes people are just waiting for that invitation. Just so you know, these next few weeks, months are my most favorite time of the year, so I implore you (and maybe I'll take my own advice) to slow down, take a breath, and eat an extra piece of pumpkin pie this holiday season.

If you're visiting with us today at Mt. Calvary we just want to say thank you for joining us for these services. We are a family here, so please don't be a stranger and come back and see us when you can.

Prayer is a holy dialogue on the telephone of heaven between two who love each other.

BIBLE TRIVA:

Last Week's Question: Who sent spies to watch Jesus? The chief priests and scribes (Luke 20:20)

This Week's Question: How many spies did Moses send into Canaan?

We had a wonderful visit last Sunday afternoon with Sis Jean Williams and her husband Charlie. The spirit was there and Bro. Gregory presented a very good devotional. Please continue to pray for Charlie that he will be saved.

Be more concerned with what God thinks about you than what people think about you.

Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

Acts 5:29

Lift up your eyes, discouraged one,
The Lord your help will be;
New strength will come from Him who said,
"For rest, come unto Me."
